20

21 B. PRESUMPTION OF INNOCENCE/REASONABLE DOUBT

22 28. The indictment is the means by which a person is accused of a crime in a criminal case. It
23 is only an accusation. It has no weight whatsoever as evidence. Is there any juror who does
24 not understand, or cannot accept this principle?

26 29. Do you understand that there has been no prior determination of guilt or innocence in this
27 case and that this trial is the first opportunity the defendant will have had to have the facts
28 heard and weighed?

3 30. Does anyone think that because a person has been arrested or charged by indictment for a
4 criminal offense that they are likely to be guilty of that offense?

6 31. Do any of you feel as you sit here now that it is impossible for a police officer to ever arrest
7 an innocent person?

9 32. Would anyone tend to believe a police officer or Government Agency more readily than any
10 other witness?

11
12 33. Do you believe that a Government Agency is less biased or more accurate than other
13 witnesses who may testify?

14
15 34. Do you understand that the testimony of a Government Agent is not entitled to any greater 16 weight than the testimony of any other witness, merely because he or she is an agent of the 17 Government?

18
19 35. Do you understand the that defendants do not have to produce any evidence in this case?

20
22 36. Under our legal system, an accused does not have to testify at trial. In fact, this court will
23 instruct you that if a defendant does not testify, you are not to hold this against the defendant
24 nor are you to infer anything by it. If a defendant were to decide that his testimony was not
25 needed in this case, do any of you feel that if a defendant did not testify, that such choice
26 would be an indication of his guilt?

27 37. What would your reaction be if the defendant did not testify in this case?

3 38. Do you understand that in a criminal proceeding the defendant is presumed innocent and the
4 burden of proof is on the government and it must prove that Defendant is guilty beyond a
5 reasonable doubt?

7 39. What does presumed innocence mean to you?

10 40. What does the term beyond a reasonable doubt mean to you?
11

12 41. Do you understand that proof beyond a reasonable doubt is proof beyond mere suspicion and
13 must be established beyond a mere probability?

15
16 42. Do you understand and accept that the Defendant in this matter has no obligation to prove 17 anything and does not have to provide any evidence that he is innocent and, if the
18 government fails to prove his case beyond a reasonable doubt, you must find defendant
19 innocent?

21 43. Could you convict a person for a crime that you think he probably committed but you are not
22 sure?

24 44. Do you understand that a reasonable doubt can arise not only from the evidence produced,
25 but also from a lack of evidence?
26

27
28 45. Do you feel that when the Federal Government arrests a person, that person must have committed a crime?

4 46. Do you believe that a person charged with a crime is innocent until the government proves
5 beyond a reasonable doubt that a person committed the crime?

7 47. Do you understand the government must put forth evidence that proves beyond a reasonable
8 doubt that Ernest Q. Muna is guilty of the crimes with which he is charged?

10
11 C. OTHER

12 51. Do you know of any reason not disclosed in your answers to these questions why you could 13 not be a fair and impartial juror in this case?

14
15
16 Dated this 14th day of June, 2005
